Paragraph 63

63. The Special Rapporteur on the human rights of internally displaced persons noted that one of the main obstacles in the search for durable solutions for internally displaced persons remained the absence of a political settlement to the unresolved armed conflict in and around the Nagorno-Karabakh region.[210] Two treaty bodies also expressed concern that the protracted conflict in the Nagorno-Karabakh region impeded the enjoyment of the rights enshrined in various treaties.[211] The Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination encouraged Azerbaijan to continue to make every effort to seek a peaceful settlement to the conflict.[212]
